

Expert Talk on “To Develop Career in IT for Emerging Modern Technologies”

(Date: 14th February, 2018)

The Expert Talk conducted “To Develop Career in IT for Emerging Modern Technologies” by Mr. Ravi Katare, Sr. Vice-President, Bank of America, New York, USA on 14.02.2018. The expert’s lecture was an amazing energy filled time for students of School of IT in AURO University as expert initiated by giving a brief yet highly motivational insightful view about the journey of a man from a strong technological background reaching to such enormous height with standard in a very short span of time. He enlightened students about the present-day industry scenario and how the industry is ever-changing because of emergence and huge technological advancements in the area like Artificial Intelligence, Machine Learning, Robotics, Agile and so forth with variety of demo of current software being used in the banking industry. Mr. Ravi Katare has proudly accepted to be an eminent member in the Board of Advisors for School of IT.

Mr. Ravi Katare, Sr. Vice-President, Bank of America at Wisdom, AURO University